THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES:
A Young Lawyer's Perspective and the Year in Review

Over the past year, the U.S. Supreme Court has addressed key issues ranging from the limits on a corporation's independent spending during political campaigns to the requirements of a suspect's basic Miranda rights. At the same time young lawyers across the nation continue to dream about one day reaching the pinnacle of oral advocacy – arguing a case before the nine esteemed Justices of the Supreme Court. For one young attorney in D.C., this dream is a reality.
