Meredith v. Jefferson County

05-915 CA6

In tandem with 05-908

Categories: Civil Rights Non-Business Constitutional School Diversity

Timeline: Pet: 1/23/2006 Grant: 6/5/2006 Arg: 12/4/2006 Dec:

Disposition: Res: Auth:

(1) Should Grutter v. Bollinger and Regents of University of California v. Bakke and Gratz v. Bollinger be overturned and/or misapplied by the Jefferson County Board of Education to use race as the sole factor to assign students to the regular (non-traditional) schools in the Jefferson County public schools? (2) Whether the race-conscious Student Assignment Plan with mechanical and inflexible quota systems of not less than 50% of African American students without individually or holistic review of any student, meets the 14th Amendment requirement of the use of race which is a compelling interest narrowly tailored with strict scrutiny? (3) Did the District Court abuse and/or exceed its remedial judicial authority in maintaining desegregative attractiveness in the public schools of Jefferson County, Kentucky?

Parents Involved v. Seattle School

Categories: Civil Rights Non-Business Constitutional School Diversity

Disposition: Res: Auth:

(1) How are the Equal Protection rights of public high school students affected by the jurisprudence of Grutter v. Bollinger and Gratz v. Bollinger? (2) Is racial diversity a compelling interest that can justify the use of race in selecting students for admission to public high schools? (3) May a school district that is not racially segregated and that normally permits a student to attend any high school of her choosing deny a child admission to her chosen school solely because of her race in an effort to achieve a desired racial balance in particular schools, or does such racial balancing violate the Equal Protection Clause of the 14th Amendment?

Washington v. Wash. Edu. Assoc.

05-1657 S. Ct. of Wash.

Consol. with 05-1589

Categories: Civil Rights Non-Business Constitutional First Amendment

Timeline: Pet: 6/14/2006 Grant: 9/26/2006 Arg: 1/10/2007 Dec:

Disposition: Res: Auth:

Where state law does not prohibit the practice, collective bargaining agreements may contain a union security provision, which requires employees, who are not members of the union, to pay an agency shop fee to the union as a condition of employment. Aboud v. Detroit Board of Education, 431 U.S. 209 (1986), held that, to protect these nonmembers' First Amendment rights, the union is prohibited from using these fees to support its political agenda if the nonmember objects (opt-out). Wash. Rev. Code § 42.17.760 provides additional protection for nonmembers by requiring them to affirmatively consent (opt-in) before their fees may be used for political purposes.

Does the requirement in Wash. Rev. Code § 42.17.760 that nonmembers must affirmatively consent (opt-in) before their fees may be used to support the union's political agenda violate the union's First Amendment rights?

2. Whether the Ninth Circuit improperly expanded § 1681m of FCRA by holding that an "adverse action" has occurred and notice is required thereunder, even when a consumer's credit information has had either no impact or a favorable impact on the rates and terms of the insurance that would otherwise have been offered or provided?

This Court has held that antitrust “per se rules are appropriate only for conduct that . . . would always or almost always tend to restrict competition.” Modern economic analysis establishes that vertical minimum resale price maintenance does not meet this condition because the practice often has substantial competition-enhancing effects. The question presented is whether vertical minimum resale price maintenance agreements should be deemed per se illegal under Section 1 of the Sherman Act, or whether they should instead be evaluated under the rule of reason.

18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A) criminalizes the “use” of a firearm during and in relation to a drug trafficking offense and imposes a mandatory consecutive sentence of at least five years’ imprisonment. In Bailey v. United States, 516 U.S. 137 (1995), this Court held that “use” of a firearm under § 924(c) means “active employment.” Id. at 144. The question presented in this case is:

Whether mere receipt of an unloaded firearm as payment for drugs constitutes “use” of the firearm during and in relation to a drug trafficking offense within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 924(c)(1)(A) and this Court’s decision in Bailey.

Does the holding of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, stating that the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act permits tuition reimbursement where a child has not previously received special education from a public agency, stand in direct contradiction to the plain language of 20 U.S.C. § 1412(a)(10)(C)(ii) which authorizes tuition reimbursement to the parents of a disabled child “who previously received special education and related services under the authority of a public agency”?

In California Democratic Party v. Jones, 530 U.S. 567, 585-586 (2000), this Court specified how States could structure a top-two primary system that does not violate the associational rights of a political party. Pursuant to the Initiative power which the People of the State of Washington reserved to themselves in their State Constitution, the voters of the State of Washington enacted a top-two primary law that the Washington State Grange had drafted to comply with Jones. That law makes the State primary a contest to select the two most popular candidates for the November ballot - regardless of party nominations or party selection. That law also allows candidates for certain offices to disclose on the ballot the name of the party (if any) which that candidate personally prefers.

Does the First Amendment prohibit top-two election systems that allow a candidate to disclose on the ballot the name of the party he or she personally prefers?
