TRANSFER ORDER

This matter is before the Court on plaintiff's pro se complaint and application to proceed in forma pauperis. Plaintiff is a federal prisoner currently confined at the Federal Correctional Institution in Talladega, Alabama. Plaintiff alleges that prison officials there violated his Eighth Amendment rights placing him in the Talladega by Special Management Unit where he is allegedly "at substantial risk of harm," Compl. at 5, and his First Amendment rights by opening his legal mail outside of his presence. See id. at 6. He seeks $1.5 million in monetary damages and equitable relief. Because none of the alleged events forming the basis of the complaint occurred in the District of Columbia, this venue is improper for litigating the claims. See 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) (designating the proper venue under the circumstances presented as the location where a substantial part of the events occurred). The Court finds it in the interests of justice and judicial economy to transfer the case to the appropriate judicial district. Accordingly, it is this 8th date of January 2010,

ORDERED that pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a), that this action is hereby TRANSFERRED to the United States District Court for the Northern District of Alabama. Whether plaintiff should be permitted to proceed further without prepayment of fees is a determination to be made by the transferee court.

Harley G. Lappin, et al., Defendants

Motion for Reconsideration

Comes Now the Plaintiff, pro se, and seeks reconsideration of the Court's Jan. 19, 2010 Order transferring this case to the Northern District of Alabama.

Plaintiff's objection is based upon the fact that several of the defendants are physically located within the District of Columbia and their decisions were made also within the District of Columbia. The authority to transfer Plaintiff to a prison in Alabama rests with officials located in the District of Columbia. The Northern District of Alabama does not possess jurisdiction to grant injunctive relief against officials in the District of Columbia for actions, customs or policies which originate in Washington, D.C.

Wherefor the Plaintiff respectfully prays that the Court vacate it's Order transferring this case.

ORDER

Petitioner's recently filed notice of appeal has been transmitted to this court from the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia. The notice seeks review of an order of the district court transferring petitioner's civil action to another district court. The proper means for contesting such a transfer is a petition for writ of mandamus filed in this court. See D.C. Circuit Handbook of Practice and Internal Procedure III.G.3 (2007). Accordingly, it is, on the court's own motion,

ORDERED that petitioner's notice of appeal be construed as a petition for writ of mandamus. It is FURTHER ORDERED that by April 14, 2010, petitioner submit a memorandum of law and fact in support of the petition. The memorandum may not exceed 30 pages. Failure by petitioner to comply with this order will result in dismissal of the petition for lack of prosecution. See D.C. Cir. Rule 38. It is FURTHER ORDERED, on the court's own motion, that by April 14, 2010, petitioner either pay the $450 docketing fee to the Clerk, U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, or file with this court a motion for leave to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis. See Attachment.

The Clerk is directed to transmit a copy of this order to the Clerk of the District Court as a request to delay transfer of that court's case until disposition of the petition by this court. The Clerk is further directed to send a copy of this order to petitioner by whatever means necessary to ensure receipt.

No. 10-5059	UNITED STATES
	COURT OF APPEALS
Jeremy Pinson,	FOR THE DISTRICT OF
Appellant,	COLUMBIA CIRCUIT
V.	FILED APR -5 2010 CLERK
Harley G. Lappin, et al., Appellees.	Motion to Stay Collection of Fees

Comes Now the Appellant and moves the Court to Stay Collection of fees in this case until the filing has been paid in full in Case No. 09-14242-C before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

28 U.S.C. 1915(b)(2) permits the recoupment of up to 20% of a prisoners monthly income at any given time. Whitfield v. Scully, 241 F.3d 264, 276-78 (2d Cir. 2001). See also Lafauci v. Cunningham, 139 F. Supp. 2d 144, 147 (D. Mass. 2001) (stating that simultaneous collection of fees depriving prisoners of all sources could "raise serious constitutional concerns").

Wherefore the Court should stay collection of fees in this case until final recoupment of fees in Case No. 09-14242-C, before the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

	OF APPEALS FOR THE
	COLUMBIA CIRCUIT
	FILED JUL 22 2010

Jeremy Pinson,	No. 10-5059
Appellant,
	Dist. Ct. No. 1:10-CV-
V.	00092-UNA
Harley G. Lappin, et al.,	Motion for Joinder of
Appellees.	Appellees and For Appenees.
	Appointment of Counsel

Comes Now Appellant Jeremy Pinson and Movants Edwin Guzman, Antoine Bruce, James Chatman, Enrique Chavez, Richard Blount, Joseph Stevens, Anthony Zaragoza, Matthew Eyre, Chavon Wiggins, Nathaniel Theris, Damarcus Law, Donte Allen, John Leigh, Ramiro Pacheco and respectfully request the Court add movants as parties to this appeal and appoint counsel to represent them.

In support of this Motion the parties would show that this lawsuit was filed in the District Court on Dec. 20, 2009. Movants filed a Motion to join suit on Jan. 11, 2010 however the Clerk of the District Court returned the Motion for Joinder on 1-22-2010 with a Copy of the District Courts transfer Order. On that same day the Appellant filed a Motion to Reconsider he transfer Order and sent back to the District Court Movants' Motion For Joinder. On 2-23-10 the Clerk of the District Court again returned the Motion unfiled with a Copy of the Order denying the Appellants Motion For Reconsideration. On 2-23-10 Appellant submitted a Notice of Appeal, with a seperate Notice filed by Movants'. One 3-1-10 the Movants' Notice of Appeal was against returned by the District Court Clerk unfiled. On March 15, 2010 this Court converted Appellants' Notice of Appeal to a Petition for a Writ of Mandamus however the Order did not include Movants' as parties to such. This Motion follows.

Legal Analysis

Petitioner/Appellant filed suit pursuant to Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents, 403 U.S. 388 (1971). Movants who asserted identical claims against the defendants moved to join the suit pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 20 which is permissible. See: In re Prison Litigation Reform Act, 105 F.3d 1131, 1138 (6th Cir. 1997); also: Boribourne v. Berg, 391 F.3d 852, 854-56 (7th Cir. 2004)[.] Movants assert the District Court Clerk exceeding his/her legal authority in refusing to file the Motion to Join and Joint Notice of Appeal as such determination could only be made by a District Judge upon the record.

Conclusion

Wherefore the Court should grant this Motion, direct the Clerk of this Court to add movants as parties to this appeal, and appoint counsel to represent them or to permit filing of a Joint Amended Opening Brief.

It is So Prayed.

ORDER

Upon consideration of the notice of appeal construed as a petition for a writ of mandamus, the amended notice of appeal construed as a supplement to the petition for a writ of mandamus, the supporting memoranda of law and fact, the "motion for joinder of appellees and for appointment of counsel," Jeremy Pinson's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, the motion to stay collection of fees, the response to the motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and motion to stay collection of fees, the reply, the supplemental pleadings filed in January and February 2012, the submissions filed in response to the court's order of April 18, 2012, including Jeremy Brown's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis, and Mikeal Glenn Stine's "verified motion requesting to join the appellants/movants," it is ORDERED that Mikeal Glenn Stine's motion to join the appellants/movants be denied, as there is no indication that Stine sought to join this case below or that he has a claim concerning the return of pleadings submitted to the district court or the transfer of the action to the Northern District of Alabama, the matters at issue in the mandamus petition. It is

FURTHER ORDERED that the motion for joinder of appellees be dismissed as moot as to all of the movants other than Nathaniel Theris, as the other movants also signed the original notice of appeal construed as a mandamus petition or the amended notice of appeal construed as a supplement to the mandamus petition. It is FURTHER ORDERED that the motion for joinder of appellees be denied and that the mandamus petition be dismissed as to Nathaniel Theris, as he has failed to keep the court informed of his current address and to prosecute this case. See D.C. Cir. Rules 38 and 46(c). It is FURTHER ORDERED that the mandamus petition be dismissed as to all of the remaining individuals who signed the amended notice of appeal construed as a supplement to the mandamus petition, except for Jeremy Pinson, Andrew Wesley Hobbs, and Jeremy Brown. The other individuals have either died, failed to keep the court informed of their current addresses, failed to respond to the court's order of April 18, 2012, or otherwise prosecute the case, or indicated that they do not wish to participate in the case. It is

FURTHER ORDERED that Andrew Wesley Hobbs's response to the court's order of April 18, 2012, be construed as including a motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis and that the motion be granted. It is FURTHER ORDERED that Jeremy Brown's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis be granted. It is FURTHER ORDERED that the mandamus petition (with Jeremy Pinson, Andrew Wesley Hobbs, and Jeremy Brown as the remaining petitioners), Jeremy Pinson's motion for leave to proceed IFP, and his motion to stay collection of fees be referred to a merits panel. The parties are directed to address the pertinent issues in their briefs, rather than incorporate their prior arguments by reference. Moreover, petitioners are directed to address their standing to pursue claims concerning the return of pleadings submitted to the district court and the transfer of the case to the Northern District of Alabama. The allocation of filing fees will be decided by the merits panel in light of its resolution of Jeremy Pinson's motion for leave to proceed in forma pauperis. It is

FURTHER ORDERED that

Anthony F. Shelley Miller & Chevalier 655 Fifteenth Street NW Suite 900 Washington DC 20005-5701 a member of the bar of this court, be appointed as amicus curiae to present arguments in favor of petitioners' positions. It is FURTHER ORDERED that petitioners may file a joint opening brief of 14,000 words and a joint reply brief if 7,000 words, or they may file individual opening briefs of 8,000 words for Jeremy Pinson and 3,000 words each for Andrew Wesley Hobbs and Jeremy Brown and individual reply briefs of 4,000 words for Jeremy Pinson and 1,500 words each for Andrew Wesley Hobbs and Jeremy Brown.

The Clerk is directed to issue an appropriate briefing schedule and calendar this case for presentation to a merits panel.

PRISON LITIGATION REFORM ACT NOTICE

Pursuant to the Prison Litigation Reform Act, new requirements have been placed on prisoners proceeding pro se when filing appeals in Federal courts. The most significant restrictions relate to filing in forma pauperis and filing successive claims.

PROCEEDING IN FORMA PAUPERIS

28 U.S.C. § 1915 requires a prisoner to pay the appropriate filing fee ($450 for a petition for review from an agency decision or an original action or $455 for an appeal from the district court) when filing an appeal in forma pauperis. The court must assess and collect from your prison account a partial filing fee of 20% of the greater of:

(1) the average monthly deposits to your prison account; or

(2) the average monthly balance in your prison account for the six month period preceding the filing of the notice of appeal.

Thereafter, you are required to make monthly payments of 20% of the preceding month's income. The agency having custody of your account is required to forward payments from your account to the Clerk of the court each time the amount in your account exceeds $10.00, until the filing fee is paid.

If you are attempting to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal from a district court order in a civil case, you must seek leave to do so from the district court in the first instance. (Note that the district court's authorization to proceed in that court in forma pauperis is effective only for proceedings in the district court and does not carry over to proceedings in this court.) If the district court denies leave to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal, you may seek leave to do so from this court. If the district court grants leave to proceed in forma pauperis on appeal, you must submit to this court a certified copy of the trust fund account statement for the six-month period preceding the filing of the notice of appeal and the consent to collection of fees form. In an original action or agency case, you must also submit a completed motion for leave to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis form.

Under 28 U.S.C. § 1915, you may be required to pay the appropriate filing fee in full, even if the complaint is dismissed prior to the collection of the entire filing fee.

SUCCESSIVE CLAIMS

Pursuant to the Prison Litigation Reform Act, unless a prisoner claims to be in "imminent danger of serious physical injury," he or she may not file a civil action or pursue a civil appeal in forma pauperis "if the prisoner has, on three or more occasions, while incarcerated or detained in any facility, brought an action or appeal in a court of the United States that was dismissed on the grounds that it is frivolous, malicious, or failed to state a claim upon which relief may be granted." 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g).
